To whom it may concern

The South African Sports Confederation and Olympic Committee (SASCOC) confirm that the South African National Pigeon Organisation (SANPO) is the only recognised body responsible for Pigeons and all its disciplines within South Africa. South African National Pigeon Organisation is a member of SASCOC in good standing.

Through this, all fully affiliated members of SANPO in good standing should also abide by SASCOC Constitution and by law able to participate in the sport of pigeons, which is governed as defined in the SANPO Constitution.
